Age Group 1 - 10 and under
Age Group 2 - 11-14
Age Group 3 - 15-19
Age Group 4 - Over 19
LIABILITY
1. In no event will the Wilson County Fair Association or it's officers, directors or members be held responsible for any loss or damage to property or person of exhibitors or other persons while on the fair grounds whether said loss or damage shall arise from accidents or any cause whatever.
2. All protests must be made in writing to the Wilson County Fair Association Secretary by an affidavit setting forth the grounds for protesting. Protests against the exhibition of any entry must be filed before the entry is judged. The Wilson County Fair Association reserves the right to construe it's own rules and regulations and to determine arbitrarily all matters and differences in regard thereto.

AWARDS
1. All exhibits must be the property of the exhibitor and must be grown, produced, or made during the year immediately preceding the fair.
2. Judges reserve the right to place an exhibit as they see fit, based on the quality of the exhibit.
3. Superintendents may remove anyone interfering with the judge's work.
4. Grand Champion and Reserve Champion ribbons in open class will be awarded if merited in Beef, Sheep, Swine, Goats, Rabbits, Crops, Vegetables, Fruits, Fancy Work, Quilting & Sewing, Foods, Food Preservation, Arts, Crafts, Flowers, and Plants, Photography, Woodworking, Poultry and WEC Booths. Premiums are paid on the highest ribbon won. In open class only one blue, red and white is awarded in each class. In 4-H, the judge may award any number of top blues, blues, reds, and whites. The Wilson County Fair Association reserves the right to prorate all premiums.
2. Exhibitors must check out with the superintendents before premiums on exhibits will be paid. Premiums will be paid following the fair.
3. The Fair reserves the right to withhold premiums and ribbons from persons violating any of these rules.

LIVESTOCK
1. Only blue ribbon animals will show for Grand Champion Awards.
2. All breeding stock must be the property of the exhibitor. Registered breeds must have registration papers in the 4-H's name according to State 4-H rules.
3. All livestock exhibitors will clean their own stall after the fair. Trucks will be available for stall waste and waste should not be left in piles around the barns. Fair premiums maybe withheld if stall clean up is not considered complete by the Fair Board.
4. All sheep and goats including wethers need scrapie tags except registered dairy goat does which are tattooed and accompanied by their registration papers.
5. Any exhibitor who is found to have tampered with or who inhumanely abuses an animal will be disqualified immediately.
6. All bedding will be paid for by the exhibitor. Chips will be available for purchase at the fair. NO STRAW should be used in stalls!

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

POULTRY
All poultry except waterfowl, must show proof that they are pullorum-typhoid clean at the time of entry to the fair by one of the following methods:
a. Have a negative blood test for pullorum-typhoid at the time of entry at the fair. Testing should be done prior to the fair. Check with the Extension Office for more information and a list of qualified testers. The date for poultry testing has been set for Friday, July 7th, 3:00 - 6:00 pm the Fairgrounds.
b. An official VS form 9-3 certifying that all birds in the flock over 4 months of age have had a negative test for pullorum-typhoid within the past year is acceptable.
c. Presenting evidence that entries were purchased from a U.S. Pullorum-typhoid clean source and are physically separated (housed in separate houses) from other flocks on the premises is acceptable.
d. An official VS form 9-2 signed by an official blood testing agent showing that the entries have had a negative result from an official pullorum-typhoid test conducted within 90 days prior to the exhibition. The sealed legband numbers of the bird(s) must appear on the form.
